INTRODUCTION.

---

THIS Book of Recipes is issued as a guide in using the Jewett Chafing Dish, and to illustrate the wide range of cooking that can be done with these useful little utensils, as well as to add to the housewife's list of good things to eat. Most of the recipes are simple and easily prepared, but in a few it is necessary to provide the ingredients beforehand.

Our best wishes go with this book, and we trust that you will, by its aid, find in the use of the Jewett Chafing Dish the pleasure that others have derived from it.

THE JEWETT ASBESTOS FORCE DRAUGHT LAMP.

PATENTED, MAY 19, 1896.

FURNISHED WITH ALL . . .
. . . JEWETT CHAFING DISHES.

The Most Perfect Lamp Made.

DESCRIPTION.

THIS LAMP is so arranged that a constant supply of air is drawn into the lamp, where it mixes with the alcohol gas (both inside and outside the flame), in such proportions as to produce the MOST PERFECT COMBUSTION, with the GREATEST ECONOMY IN FUEL, and WITHOUT SMELL OR SMOKE. The extinguisher is arranged so that the flame can be reduced when only a moderate heat is required.

DIRECTIONS.

THOROUGHLY saturate the asbestos with alcohol, pouring it over dome "A" until the alcohol stands at dotted line "B" without soaking away. To REDUCE FLAME, cover with extinguisher "C," leaving SLIDE COVER "D" open. To EXTINGUISH, close cover "D."

THE JEWETT PATENT ASBESTOS FORCE DRAUGHT LAMP will produce a given amount of heat, WITHOUT SMELL OR SMOKE, and with a SAVING OF OVER TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. IN TIME, over any other lamp of equal size.

PLEASE NOTE.

The John C. Jewett Mfg. Co. are the sole manufacturers of STROUD'S PATENT CLAM AND OYSTER STEAMER, which is composed of a hot water pan, Dish and Cover, being the same as their regular round chafing dishes, excepting that the DISH is perforated near the top, which allows the steam from hot water pan to pass into it. These patent perforated dishes, or steamers, are sold separately, and are a most important addition to our regular dishes, as they can be used for cooking lobsters, mushrooms, or any other article that can be cooked by steaming.

These steamers are endorsed by the "Waldorf," "Brunswick," "Imperial," and other high-class New York hotels and restaurants.
